'Daytime Music' returns

By Elle Cecil

Bunjil Place is welcoming shows featuring your favorite classic artists to the venue in July and August with its second Daytime Music Theatre Series.

Adelaide folk sensation The Beggars will take you on a wonderful journey through the music of The Seekers on Friday July 22. With hits including 'I'll Never Find Another You,' 'The Carnival Is Over,' 'Morningtown Ride' and of course, 'Georgie Girl,' The Beggars will celebrate The Seekers while adding their own spin on the 1960s classics.

On Friday August 12, an awesome cast led by Chris McKenna will showcase popular Gilbert and Sullivan musicals such as The Pirates of Penzance, The Mikado and HMS Pinafore, as well as classics from composing duos Lerner and Lowe, and The Gershwin Brothers.

Featuring beautiful singing, stunning costumes and a stellar cast, make sure you don't miss this show at Bunjil Place.

Guests at either of these shows can treat themselves to a Show and Lunch package, featuring a delicious two-course meal of main and dessert in the Function Centre, with drinks available for purchase.

To make the Daytime Music Series a regular occurrence in your schedule, consider purchasing a season pass to reserve your place and save money along the way!

This pass will get you into shows later in the year, including 'Practically Perfect - the Music of Julie Andrews' in September, 'Wish Upon A Star - The Disney Songbook' in November, and 'Christmas Heart and Music' in December.

All shows are performed in the Bunjil Place Theatre, commencing at 10.30am, with a complimentary morning tea served at 9.45am in the foyer.

For accessibility bookings or other box office inquiries, email bunjilplace@casey.vic.gov.au or phone 9709 9700 between 9am and 5pm (Monday to Saturday).

Bunjil Place is located at 2 Patrick Northeast Drive, Narre Warren. For more information on these shows and others coming up, visit bunjilplace.com.au
