REIA farewells Kelly

AT ITS 2021 Annual General Meeting on December 15, the Board of the Real Estate Institute of Australia (REIA) announced that it had elected leading Western Australian agent and auctioneer Hayden Groves as the new REIA President.

Succeeding Adrian Kelly, who served as REIA President from 2019 to 2021, Hayden Groves has been on the REIA Board since 2015, and was previously serving as REIA Deputy President and Chair of REIA Finance, Audit and Risk Committee, and as President of the Real Estate Institute of Western Australia (REIWA).

"REIA's primary objectives for 2022 will be to defend and promote private property markets," Mr Groves says.

"This includes championing the great Australian dream of home ownership and investment in the federal election and the next federal budget."

Mr Groves is a licenced agent and auctioneer and holds a Bachelor of Politics (Hons) from Monash University. As well as these achievements, Mr

Groves owns leading Western Australian agency dethridgeGROVES in Fremantle, which has been awarded the REIWA Large Agency of the Year 2020, Marketing and Communications Award 2020 and 2021, REIA Marketing and Communications Award 2021 and Rate My Agent Agency of the Year, Fremantle 2020 and 2021.

"2022 will no doubt be a year like no other, and on behalf of all state and territory institutes, I look forward to advancing the industry excellence and best practice of Australia's real estate agents," Mr Groves says.

"It is an honour to be elected to this role by the Board of REIA... and I thank my colleagues for their trust and support - I would like to pay tribute to the achievements of Adrian Kelly, REIA's immediate Past President."

Mr Kelly was awarded the REIA's highest honour, Diploma of Fellow, for his service to the institute. Mr. Kelly said that his goal as President was to make REIA better, and that he is pleased that he can finish his tenure with the knowledge that he has achieved this.

Mr Groves is supported by Leanne Pilkington as Deputy President, while the 2022 Board of Directors represents each state and territory in Australia.

They are as follows:

- Craig Bright – Real Estate Institute of the Australian Capital Territory (REIACT)
- Damian Collins – Real Estate Institute of Western Australia (REIWA)
- Diane Davis, Real Estate Institute of the Northern Territory (REINT)
- Ray Ellis, Additional Director
- Adrian Kelly – Real Estate Institute of Tasmania (REIT)
- Richard Simpson – Real Estate Institute of Victoria (REIV)
