New horizons open up for Marymede Catholic College

Marymede Catholic College in South Morang has a new Catholic secondary campus opening soon. The new campus will open in 2024 starting with an intake of year 7 students. An Early Learning Centre will also be opening for a 2023 intake of three-year-old and four-year-old pupils.

"Such is the success of our early learning centre here in South Morang that we thought it would be a real boost for the Doreen area to have an ELC connected to our new secondary campus," says principal Michael Kenny.

"We're well down the track with planning for the Early Learning Centre, so there are some really exciting times ahead."

The new campus will be located on the same site as St Paul the Apostle Catholic Primary School in Doreen, and will operate concurrently with the prep to year 12 campus in South Morang. The new campus will assist the college manage the unprecedented demand for enrolments. Almost two years in the making so far, the new campus site is set to feature cutting-edge facilities to match that of the South Morang campus.

Marymede Catholic College is currently working on a comprehensive website to keep current and prospective parents informed on the progress of the construction and development of the new campus.

The school's South Morang campus has also recently undergone several major developments.

The newly-opened Materials and Digital Technology Centre is a key point of learning, along with a $4.8 million Performing Arts Centre redevelopment unde rway, set to be ready for the commencement of the 2022 school year.

Founded in 2006, Marymede takes a holistic approach to education, catering for students' individual hopes and aspirations.
