The team at Proctor Accountants will help you perfect your tax return this year.

Trust your tax affairs to Proctor Accountants

Providing tax return services for clients in a variety of industries such as construction, health, security and garment industries, along with self-managed super funds, business activity statements, 'mum and dad' businesses, small-medium enterprises, and businesses with multi million dollar turnover, Proctor Accountants are your guardian angels this tax time.

Accountant Phil Proctor has been in the tax and accounting industry for 22 years, and has run his own practice for the last 12 years.

"I am driven by the rapport I build with my clients, and achieving the best possible outcome for them," Phil says. "My greatest achievement is having the business evolve from a one man band to having multiple employees, as well as the capacity to form a strong collaboration with complementary businesses to assist our clients within our own office."

Services are tailored to each individual client's needs and clients are not handballed from professional to professional. If you see Phil for your tax return one year, you will see him the next.

Consistent client feedback highlights the fact that Phil is not just a typical accountant. Rather, he explains everything in terms that is easily understood.

With tax season approaching and legislation changing each year, Proctor Accountants is preparing with staff training sessions before clients book in, ensuring that each member of the team is comfortable and compliant with all current tax laws.

As a part of the Geelong Wealth Centre, Proctor Accountants can put clients in touch with like-minded complementary businesses, including bookkeepers and financial advisors.

Proctor Accountants is located at 4a Reeves Court, Breakwater. For more information or to book an appointment, visit www.proctoraccounting.com.au

Foot and leg specialists

Foot, knee and leg pain injuries and arthritis are extremely prevalent, yet so difficult to treat successfully. However, it's comforting to know that world class experts are just around the corner in the form of practitioners at Foot and Leg Pain Clinics.

As one of Australia's leading musculoskeletal podiatry practices, Foot and Leg Pain Clinics have been assisting Victorians with pain, injuries and degenerative concerns for the past 25 years. Renowned for their successful treatments, the clinics' services are sought from far and wide. They've even been the chosen podiatrists for some of the world's best athletes, including seven of the world's number one tennis players, PGA Golfers, and Olympic gold medallists.

Musculoskeletal podiatrist, Dr David Kavanagh, is the head of the Geelong West clinic.

"We're able to bring 25 years of expertise to local areas, enabling people to access world class treatment close to home," Dr Kavanagh says.

"We achieve consistent, successful and long-term outcomes for patients because we combine our extensive experience with the very latest medical research and treatments. We also understand that to achieve long-term healing we need to find and address the cause and contributing factors of pain and concerns and not just treat the symptoms.

"If you don't know the cause or factors contributing to pain or injury, you can't intervene appropriately and the body will be unable to heal or continue to re-injure itself."

If you suffer from foot, heel or ankle pain, plantar fasciitis, achilles concerns, shin pain, knee conditions, injuries, arthritis or have children with growth or development concerns, it's comforting to know expert help is available not too far from home.
